

Anglo Portuguese School of London

23rd November 2020

At APSoL this week;

In Maths, we have been going over the vocabulary associated with positional language. We have been showing the children a variety of objects positioned in and around a box or table and then asking them to say where the object is in relation to the box or the table. For example, “the teddy bear is next to the box.” Please ask your child to describe where objects are in relation to another. Please see the information opposite on spatial awareness. To extend their learning and language, ask the children to describe the objects.

In Literacy, we wrote letters and made present lists for Santa/Father Christmas. We are also about to start reading ‘Stickman’ by Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler. We talked about the key vocabulary to make sure we understand the different words when come to read the book.

Post Office

Our pumpkin patch has now been turned into a post office. The children are writing cards and writing addresses on envelopes and having fun dressing up as post people.

Christmas Performance

At the beginning of this week, we sent home the words each child will be saying in the performance. Attached to the words, was information regarding the children’s costumes. Please have a look and let us know if you have any questions.

Sticks! We need sticks!

As part of our work on the book Stickman, we would like the children to make representations of the characters. From this Monday, please could you bring in lots of sticks.

Thank you for all your support,

Temos agora na escola um posto de correios que tem proporcionado um grande divertimento e tem estimulado a escrita de muitos postais.
